I am a money magnet

Money, opportunities, resources and the right people are easily drawn to me

I appreciate and respect money and it appreciates and respects me

Every day I am becoming a better and wiser steward of my money

Every day and in every way I am becoming financially healthier

I recognize that I live in an Abundant Universe that is my ally and seeks to prosper me continuously

I recognize that money is simply a tool and a resource, and I draw it to me continuously and easily

I bless others with my prosperity and the law of increase brings it back to me ten-fold

I give thanks for my genius power of creativity that enables me to create ways to generate money.

I continuously think of ways my gifts, talents, passions, skills, abilities, intelligence and wisdom can be packaged to contribute to others, and in return, be converted into cash flow.

I have an attitude of gratitude

I have a giving, generous and grateful heart

I am comfortable discussing money and money matters with clarity and confidence.

I am a gracious Receiver and I easily allow myself to receive readily, humbly and gratefully

I stand under a spout where good things pour out.
